HAPPY VALLEY

The World Council of Churches are this week praying for Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda

Give thanks for:

- Those who have given up their lives to protect others.
- Those who work for reconciliation between people.
- Those establishing a lasting peace with justice for people of all ethnic groups and nationalities.
- The diversity of plants and animals in this region, and their protection.
- Choirs and music, which abound in this region.

Pray for:

- Women who have contracted HIV and AIDS after being raped in the DRC, Burundi and Rwanda.
- Orphans, widows, street children, traumatized and disabled people, those in overcrowded prisons, and those who live in the squalor of refugee camps.
- Those steeped in ethnic violence and hatred, that their hearts may be turned.
- The establishment of a stable and lasting peace in the region, so that those who have been forced to leave their homes may return, families may be reunited, and those who have suffered may begin to heal.
- An end to corruption and corporate greed, and the sustainable use of vast natural resources.
- Those displaced by violence and by the volcano in Goma, that they may be able to rebuild their lives.
- Children, that they may attend school and play without fear of violence.
- An end to the violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo, so that the country may begin to heal and rebuild itself.
